Head Ache Sometimes?

If so, it will interest you to know. that it can be stopped with Dr. Miles' Anti-Pain Pills; and without any bad after-effects, and this without danger of forming a drug habit or having your stomach disarranged. They positively contain no opium, morphine, cocaine, chloral, ether or chloroform in any form. Dr. Miles' Anti-pain Pills relieve pain, and leave only a sense of relief. The reason for this is explained by the fact that headache comes from tired, irritable, turbulent, overtaxed brain nerves. Anti-Pain Pills soothe and strengthen these nerves, thus removing the cause. They are harmless when taken as directed.

"We use Dr. Miles' Anti-Pain Pills for the cure of headache, and we think that there is nothing that will equal them. They will cure the severest spell of nervous or sick headache in a very few casionally have spells when my nerves seem to be completely exhausted, and I tremble so I can scarcely contain myself. Lieut. Byrnes reported that very few persons in the local-ity mentioned kept dogs, and that the barking was done by dogs strangers in the

Mr. Peirce Will Not Reply.

Third Assistant Secretary Peirce of the State Department has decided that he will not claim the privilege of appearing before the House committee on foreign affairs to make answer to the statement made to that committee by Mr. Robert McWade, late United States consul at Canton, in connection with Mr. Peirce's "confidential report" upon consulates in the orient. He was led to that decision, he said, by the representa-tions of certain members of the committee to the effect that the body had no jurisdic-tion in the matter, and a hearing would consequently be of no use in a case which is regarded as one purely within executive Contract Laborers Denied Admission. As an indication of the effective steps being taken by the government to prevent the landing in this country of contract laborers, Commissioner General Sargent of the bureau of immigration has given out a statement showing that during the month of April 481 such laborers were denied admission at the port of New York, and for the first five days of May 178 were turned back, or a total of 659. The men were nearly all Greeks and Bulgarians, and although they claimed to have come to the United States looking for employment, it was conclusively shown before the boards of inquiry that they had come under previous engagement. In but a few instances appeals were taken, which, the immigration officials here state, was proof that they came under contract.

Presidential Nominations Confirmed. The Senate in executive session yesterday confirmed the following nominations: Harmon L. Remmel, marshal, eastern district of Arkansas; Frank E. Gillette, associate justice of the supreme court of Okla-homa; a number of postmasters and pro-motions in the army.

Pay of Pacific Coast Roads. The Senate today passed a joint resolution authorizing the Postmaster General to make a change in the mail regulations so as to arrange for the compensation of the railroads on the Pacific coast for carrying the mails for the next three years on the basis of the average weight of the mail for thirty working days before the earthquake in San Francisco. The change was made necessary by the earthquake.

To Bridge the Missouri. The Senate today passed a bill authorizing the Chicago, Milwaukee and St. Paul Railway Company to construct a bridge across the Missouri river in Broadwater and Gallatin countles, Montana.

Favorable Report on the Scott Bill. The House committee on pensions today authorized a favorable report on the Scott the veterans or their widows of the 18th and 19th Kansas Volunteer Cavalry Regiments, under the act of June 27, 1900. providing for pensions for soldiers who served ninety days during the civil war. These regiments were mustered in just at the close of the war, but did valuable service in repelling Indian attacks thereafter.

WINDER. On Wednesda, morning, May 9, 1996, at her residence, at Portsmouth, N. H., Mrs. WILLIAM A. WINDER.

In Memoriam.

BUSEY. In sad but loving remembrance of our dear mother, OLEVIA BUSEY, who died four years ago today—May 9, 1902. BY HER CHILDREN, WILLIAM, HATTIE AND GEORGE.

WALTER. In loving remembrance of my dear husband, CHARLES C. WALTER, who died two years ago today—May 9, 1904.

A brief time only, a friend by my side,
Long lingering here, we watched the dark tide.
Bright leaves of autumn, how magic the spell;
Ah! me, for my friend! I loved him so well.
Today I'm alone, and the bright waters say,
Passing away; we're passing away.
Somewhere beyond lies the heavenly shore;
There gladly I'll greet that comrade once more,
By another fair river we'll rest in the shade,
Where leaws never wither and flowers never fade,
And that river will sing not the song of today,
Passing away; we're passing away.

BY HIS LOVING WIFE LIZZIE.
